

Agriculture Literacy Quiz

How much do you know about food and fibers?

---

Circle “YES” or “NO”

- |  |     |    |
|--|-----|----|
| 1. Hamburger comes from a pig.   | YES | NO |
| 2. Agriculture is another word to use when talking about farming.          | YES | NO |
| 3. One acre of land is about the size of a football field.                 | YES | NO |
| 4. Goats can produce milk.   | YES | NO |
| 5. Cows are milked only once a day.  | YES | NO |
| 6. Steak comes from a beef animal  | YES | NO |
| 7. Swine is another word for a sheep.                                      | YES | NO |
| 8. Wool can be used to make clothes and blankets.                          | YES | NO |
| 9. Blue jeans are made out of cotton - a plant.                            | YES | NO |
| 10. The part of the onion plant we eat is the flower.                      | YES | NO |
| 11. Bread sold in grocery stores is mostly made of corn.                   | YES | NO |
| 12. Most flour is ground-up wheat.   | YES | NO |
| 13. Spaghetti noodles are mostly made of flour.                            | YES | NO |
| 14. The part of the wheat plant used to make flour is a seed               | YES | NO |
| 15. The main ingredient in salad dressing is vinegar.                      | YES | NO |
| 16. Corn can be dried and crushed to make oil.                             | YES | NO |
| 17. Oil used in mayonnaise and salad dressing is made from seeds           | YES | NO |
| 18. Chickens lay an egg twice a day  | YES | NO |
| 19. Potatoes grow in the soil under the plant                              | YES | NO |
| 20. Cheese is made from flour and oil                                      | YES | NO |
| 21. Apples and grapes are the leading fruit crops grown in New York State. | YES | NO |
| 22. Leading crops in New York are cabbage, sweet corn and onions.          | YES | NO |
| 23. Milk is New York State’s leading agricultural product.                 | YES | NO |
| 24. New York State ranks second in the nation in apple production.         | YES | NO |

ANSWERS

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Hamburger comes from a pig.   | NO  |
| 2. Agriculture is another word to use when talking about farming.          | YES |
| 3. One acre of land is about the size of a football field.                 | YES |
| 4. Goats can produce milk.   | YES |
| 5. Cows are milked only once a day.  | NO  |
| 6. Steak comes from a beef animal  | YES |
| 7. Swine is another word for a sheep.                                      | NO  |
| 8. Wool can be used to make clothes and blankets.                          | YES |
| 9. Blue jeans are made out of cotton - a plant.                            | NO  |
| 10. The part of the onion plant we eat is the flower.                      | NO  |
| 11. Bread sold in grocery stores is mostly made of corn.                   | YES |
| 12. Most flour is ground-up wheat.   | NO  |
| 13. Spaghetti noodles are mostly made of flour.                            | YES |
| 14. The part of the wheat plant used to make flour is a seed               | YES |
| 15. The main ingredient in salad dressing is vinegar.                      | NO  |
| 16. Corn can be dried and crushed to make oil.                             | NO  |
| 17. Oil used in mayonnaise and salad dressing is made from seeds           | YES |
| 18. Chickens lay an egg twice a day  | NO  |
| 19. Potatoes grow in the soil under the plant                              | YES |
| 20. Cheese is made from flour and oil                                      | NO  |
| 21. Apples and grapes are the leading fruit crops grown in New York State. | YES |
| 22. Leading crops in New York are cabbage, sweet corn and onions.          | YES |
| 23. Milk is New York State's leading agricultural product                  | YES |
| 24. New York State ranks second in the nation in apple production.         | YES |

